GRAND KNIGHT'S NOTES

Tim Helmer, Grand Knight

There are many great things ready to happen in the Knights of Columbus. Plan now to attend the next meeting and be a part of something very special.

I would like to thank all Knights and their family members who helped with the setup and return of the flags at the cemetery on Memorial Day.

THANK YOU

Thanks to all the Brother Knights who came and helped with the Feast of the Sacred Heart and Father Rich's surprise 40th birthday party cook out.

Many Knights showed up and helped with the preparation of the hamburgers, hot dogs and brats. The Altar Society members shined with their preparation and the side dishes and desserts. Several people stayed after the meal and moved tables and chairs to ready the hall for Religious Education. Having that many people made it easy and enjoyable. Thanks to everyone!

KNIGHTS NOTES

- A reminder that the rally for Religious Freedom is on Friday, June 29, at the south steps of the capital building in Topeka. Come join the Kansas bishops in their call for respect for religious freedom.
- Our council will be involved in the upcoming centennial celebration of the church building. Planning is still underway so watch for further details. Whatever levels of involvement the council has, many members will be asked to pitch in.
- Thanks to all Knights who helped in any way during Fr. Oswaldo Sandoval's ordination weekend.
