GRAND KNIGHT'S NOTES

By Matt Coleman, Grand Knight

Brother Knights,

So many opportunities recently to volunteer through fall, and now winter is upon us. Thank you all so much for the recent support for all the Parish and Council activities. Please join us for our Super Breakfast coming up at the craft sale on December 10th.

Also, as a quick reminder, we will have no regular meeting coming up in December. Join us for sacking candy on December 12, at 6:00 p.m.

TOOTSIE ROLLS FOR SALE

Council 727 has tootsie rolls remaining from the October Tootsie Roll Drive. The leftover tootsie rolls are for sale $10 a brick (50 tootsie rolls) or $50 a case (300 tootsie rolls). If you are interested in purchasing these tootsie rolls please contact Gene Ohlman at gohlman49@gmail.com or 620-794-2460.

REQUEST FOR FLAG DONATIONS

During the Veteran's Parade of Flags several flags were identified as damaged or torn and needing replacement. The Knights are needing 5 X 9 ½' United States Interment Flags to replace the old flags. If you have an Interment Flag you would be willing to donate to the Knights please drop it off at the Sacred Heart Parish Office. If possible please leave your name or family name with the flag for identification.

FAMILY OF THE MONTH

November – Manual and Melinda Chiroy

KNIGHT OF THE MONTH

November – Mike Perigo

KNIGHTS NOTES

- The totals are in and this past summers Knights of Columbus Golf Tournament netted approximately $4,400 for our council. These funds will help support our council for the next few years. The council is submitting application paperwork to host the Knights of Columbus State Golf Tournament again in 2020.
- During October the Knights led the Rosary prior to the weekend masses. Thanks to all who stepped forward to help and especially to David McGill for recruiting and scheduling people.
- Thanks to all those who helped with recent events including: Sunday morning breakfasts, the Tootsie Roll Drive, grilling for the Stewardship Committee, and the Fall Festival.
- Mike Perigo has accepted the position of correspondence secretary with the council. Please don't hesitate to reach out to Mike with topics requiring a note from our council. Mike is eager to hit the ground running but will need all of our help to brief him on items that occur throughout the community.
- Knights and family members once again displayed flags at Sacred Heart Cemetery on Veterans Day. Thanks to all who participated. Because of rain the flags had to dry overnight in the hall but were subsequently folded thanks to those at the officers meeting. The next scheduled parade of flags is planned for Memorial Day in May.
- Please plan to attend the upcoming regular meeting on November 27th. One item of discussion will be a potential donation to acquire new banners in the Sacred Heart parking lot.
- The Super Breakfast is Sunday December 10th. Please come and enjoy a grand breakfast and attend the concurrent craft sale.
- There is no regular council meeting in December. On December 12th at 6 p.m. we will sack candy bags for distribution at Sacred Heart School.
