GRAND KNIGHT'S NOTES

By Matt Coleman, Grand Knight

Brother Knights,

What a busy October! Thanks for all the help saying Rosaries at Mass this month, distributing Tootsie Rolls, serving breakfast, Rosary service and all the month-to-month items the council is able to manage. It is quite humbling to look at the month and see all that was accomplished.

One other item I want to note; if anyone has interest in some delicious granola, courtesy of Chef Mike, please see a council member - these will be for sale at various events as well for $4 per 8 oz box. If you haven't sampled it yet, take my word for it - delicious!

As we wind down the year, we'll look to gather for Veteran's Day flag raising, Super Breakfast and sacking candy for the Sacred Heart school kids - look to the newsletter and your email for up-to-date information on these events.

-Vivat Jesus

OCTOBER: Rosary and Tootsie Rolls

Knights led the recitation of the Rosary at all weekend Masses again in October. Knights also distributed Tootsie Rolls at local stores and at all Masses the weekend of October 13th. The funds collected will be distributed to the same programs as last year. Thanks to Dave McGill for managing both of these projects again this year. Thanks also to Norm Hammond who represented Leo Council at the Emporia Fatima Rosary rally on October 13th.

Sacred Heart Festival November 4

The Sacred Heart Fall Festival will be on Sunday, November 4. Traditionally the Knights have helped with the set up, turkey carving and cleanup. Set up will begin at 5PM on Thursday, November 1st, carving begins Saturday at 8AM, and cleanup will begin immediately after the festival, around 1:30PM on Sunday. There are plenty of opportunities to serve, so please plan to participate.

November 11 Cemetery Flags

The Knights will once again raise and lower the American flags at Sacred Heart cemetery on Veterans Day. Note that November 11 falls on a Sunday this year. We will raise the flags at 7:00 AM and lower them at 4:00 PM. Remember, if it is raining that morning, we will not raise the flags. Many hands make for quick work on this project. Please come out and lend a hand.

COUNCIL NOTES

- The council voted to subscribe for Masses for deceased Knights again in 2019.
- Tootsie Rolls are available for $10/box or $50/case. The council is also selling granola for $4/box. A table will be set up at the breakfasts.
- Our next breakfast is scheduled for November 18. We will begin setting up in the parish hall around 7:00AM and be serving breakfast after the 8:00 and 9:30 Masses.
- Looking ahead, our December breakfast with the Altar Society will fall on December 9th. Please plan to help out with this larger-than-usual event.
- Ron Dinkel is looking for volunteers to serve on his parish hall set up committee. A couple of times per year, they are asked to set the hall up for special events. If interested, contact Ron.
